

JUSTICE NOMA GURICH
Supreme Court of Oklahoma,
District No. 3: Oklahoma City

Justice, 2011 to date; Chief Justice: January 1, 2019 to December 31, 2020; Vice Chief Justice December 2016 to December 2018. 3rd woman justice since statehood; retained 2012 and 2018; District Judge Oklahoma County 1998-2011; Presiding Judge ((2003-04); Workers' Compensation Court (1988 to 1998); Presiding Judge (1989-92); OKC Private practice (1978-88); J.D. (1978) OU College of Law;

Order of the Owl Hall of Fame (2016); Board of Visitors (2015-date); Magna cum laude Indiana State University (1975); ISU Distinguished Alumni Award (2012); 2003 OBA Women in Law Mona Salyer Lambird Spotlight Award; 2011 Judge of the Year (OK-ABOTA); Byliner Award Civic Leadership 2013; Oklahoma Women's Hall of Fame (2019); William J. Holloway, Jr. Inn of Court 1994-date (member, past president); received the 2020 Holloway Award; OKC Kiwanis Club 1998 to date (member, past president, Key Club Advisor); 2021 Fellow, College of Workers' Compensation Lawyers; OBA 2021 Neil E Bogan Professional Responsibility Award; 2021 Sovereignty Symposium Hodges-Lavender Award for Judicial Excellence; OCBA YLD Beacon Award 2022; Oklahoma Young Professionals Icon Award 2023; Speaker, mentor for Oklahoma Girls State; OBA Foundation Partner for Justice;

St. Luke's Methodist Church TV camera operator; Meals on Wheels Driver (OKC) Justice Gurich has served in the Oklahoma state judicial branch for 35 years. She's been a member of the Oklahoma Bar Association since 1978. Justice Gurich has the unique distinction of having been appointed to a judicial office by four (4) Governors of Oklahoma, after being nominated by the constitutionally created Judicial Nominating Commission.