

Dr S. Sandy Sanbar, MD, PhD, JD

Military Service in the U.S. Army Medical Corps:

1969 - CAPTAIN and promoted to MAJOR, at Fitzsimmons General Hospital, Denver, Colorado.

1970 - LT. COLONEL while serving in the U.S. Army Medical Corps, U.S. Army Hospital, Danang, Vietnam.

1970 - Bronze Star Medal Award for his efforts in Vietnam; Honorably Discharged July 4, 1970.

Born in Haifa, Israel. Citizenship USA.

1. BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (With Distinction) in Biology;
2. DOCTOR OF MEDICINE (With Distinction), American University of Beirut in L
3. DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY (in Biochemistry) at the University of Oklahoma, while working as a Cardiovascular Research Trainee, Oklahoma Medical Research Institute in Oklahoma City;
4. JURIS DOCTOR degree is from Oklahoma City University;
5. Residency in Internal Medicine at the Oklahoma University Health Sciences Center;
6. Residency in Internal Medicine at the University of Michigan Medical Center, Ann Arbor, Michigan;
7. Postdoctoral Cardiovascular Fellow then Research Cardiovascular Associate of the Ontario Heart Foundation and Clinical Assistant in the Department of Internal Medicine, at the University of Toronto, Ontario, Canada;
8. Cardiovascular Fellow of the Michigan Heart Association and an Instructor in Internal Medicine;
9. Advanced Cardiovascular Research Fellow of the American Heart Association and Assistant Professor, Hypertension Unit, Department of Internal Medicine, University of Michigan Medical Center, Ann Arbor, Michigan.
10. Currently, Adjunct Professor of Medical Education, OUHSC, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.
11. Currently, Adjunct Professor of Medical Jurisprudence, Touro University Nevada College of Osteopathic Medicine.

Sanbar is a Past President of the American College of Legal Medicine (1989-1990) and he has received numerous Awards, including Gold Medal Award (2000) and Distinguished Service Award (2007) of the American College of Legal Medicine. In 2007, he was elected as the Chairman of the American Board of Legal Medicine (ABLM), and currently the Executive Director of ABLM. He is a Diplomat of the ABLM. He performed Consultative Examinations (for 6 ½ years) then served as a Medical Consultant (2 ½ years) for the Department of Disability Services, Social Security Administration in Oklahoma City. Sanbar has been in private practice in Oklahoma City. He is the Vice-President of the Western Institute of Legal Medicine.

Sanbar has published over 300 articles and chapters in books. His books include Hyperlipidemia & Hyperlipoproteinemia; Medical and Hospital Law; Editor, LEGAL MEDICINE, seven Editions from 1987- 2007; Editor. MEDICAL MALPRACTICE SURVIVAL HANDBOOK, 2007; and Editor, ABLM BOARD REVIEW EXAM & STUDY GUIDE, 2007 & 2012, and eBook, LEGAL MEDICINE & MEDICAL ETHICS, 2010 and 2015. His latest two books published in 2016 and 2018 deal with love, relationships in the elderly and Alzheimer's patients. As Associate Editor, he publishes articles for the LAW AND MEDICINE section of the Oklahoma County Medical Society publication, the BULLETIN. He is also an Associate Editor of the OSMA Journal. He is a member of the Oklahoma Bar, the Oklahoma County Bar, the Oklahoma State Medical Association and the Oklahoma County Medical Society. He is a State, National and International Lecturer on Legal Medicine and Medical Ethics, and he generally serves as Seminar Program Chairman.

Sanbar has been married to Dorothy since 1961, and they have 2 children and 3 grandchildren.